4. NEW BUSINESS TO ADDRESS

Chair Knott started the meeting asking Carol to give the Committee an update on the Street Banners. Carol stated that the banners are up thanks to the Operation Department, there are some brackets missing but will look into getting more and seeing how many banners are left. Question was asked if there will be an article in the paper about the banners, Carol will look into this.

Next up was the mural on the Wastewater Treatment Plant. Through discussion with the Committee and in regards to this project it was decided, and for reasons of transparency, that a Call- Out be implemented for this project.

Carol Marleau updated the committee on the Five Corners Kiosk project, letting them know that the Heritage Committee will be looking at photos to go on the new kiosk. The final photo will come through the Heritage committee.

Chair Knott let the committee know that Amber Price wants to do a mural on Younie’s Restaurant wall that would depict something to front line workers. She is also interested in doing something on the Hospital wall. There has been no rendering received for either and Amber is aware that they would have to come through the CPAAC.

Kyle Williams joined the meeting at 9:50 am.

Talks were held on the priority of the roundabouts with Lickman Road one being decided on to send out an RFP for artwork. Prest/Chilliwack Central is earmarked for wildflowers.

5. INFORMATION / DISCUSSION

Question was asked regarding the Mural Festival that Amber Price wanted to host at the end of August, which is on hold for now.

There was also discussion on getting Public Art going on the southside. Chair Attrill would like the Committee to scout out locations and report back next meeting also to look at the North Vancouver website for Public Art.
