WHO DOES WHAT?
Levels of Government

CITY OF CHILLIWACK

Federal Government
canada.ca

Responsible for policies and activities that affect all of Canada.

- Citizenship and Immigration
- Ports, Airports, Highways
- RCMP
- National defense
- Natural resources
- Pensions
- Employment Insurance programs
- Post offices

School District
sd33.bc.ca

Management and operations of public schools and facilities.

- Catchment areas
- Bussing
- School calendars
- Operating budgets

Provincial Government
gov.bc.ca

Responsible for policies and activities that affect an individual Province.

- Housing
- Shelter beds
- Health Care
- Public Health
- Immunizations
- Education and Child Care
- Transportation and Public Transit
- Social Services
- Environment
- Water Quality
- Property assessment
- School system
- Provincial income tax
- Sales Tax
- WorkSafe
- Justice
- Mining and forests
- Highway maintenance

Regional Government (Fraser Valley Regional District)
fvrd.ca

Responsible for providing region wide services and acting as the local government for electoral (rural) areas.

- Regional planning and growth
- Land use and development in electoral areas
- Air quality
- Regional parks and services
- Animal control and dog licenses
- Mosquito control

First Nations
stolonation.bc.ca
ttml.ca

Responsible for policies that govern people and property on reserve land.

Municipal Government (City of Chilliwack)
chilliwack.com

Responsible for policies that govern people and property; local planning, infrastructure and services in Chilliwack.

- Zoning for land use and development
- Streets and parking
- Local parks, trails, and public spaces
- Fire Department
- Water and sewer
- Bylaws
- Leisure Centres and Civic Facilities
- Snow removal
- Curbside collection
- Building permits
- Business licenses
- Property tax rate
- Public Transit in partnership with the Province